

A Sneak Peek at the 2021 ISCA Foundation Silent Auction...

“THE LEGENDS”

The ISCA Foundation is fortunate to be able to offer a number of items from legendary Irish Setter breeders and fanciers in the Silent Auction and raffle at this year's National. Among the highlights are...

From the estate of Connie Vanacore: Bronzes by Damara Bolte, Virginia Perry Gardiner, Jim Gion and Walter Matia

From the estate of Claire Andrews: A bronze sculpture by Leslie Hutto, a framed print of “The Shamrock” by Thomas Blinks, several pieces of VPG jewelry, numerous statues and figurines

From Kay Bedeau: A 14k gold VPG pin/pendant of a gaiting Irish Setter with diamonds and emeralds

From the estate of Penny Nunnally: Numerous statues and figurines, a needlepoint handbag, assorted coffee mugs

From Judith Cooper: A large original oil painting of Headliner The Flaming Beauty, BoB Irish Setter and Sporting Group 2 Winner at the 1962 Westminster KC

From Sandy Barrett: a handmade quilt

From Ana & Julien Goulet: A 14k gold and pave' diamond pendant of a gaiting Irish Setter

The Silent Auction and raffle will be open during Veteran Sweepstakes on Wednesday night at the National, and again during the TopTwenty Invitational on Thursday night. Anyone not attending the National may bid on any of these items by contacting Heidi Laabs (262 853 8330/hlaabs@aol.com) or Karolynne McAteer (914 772 7873/karolynnem@gmail.com)
